

Savva Locci

London, United Kingdom
studio@savvalocci.com

Savva Locci is a London-based photographer whose practice grew from walking and close observation in Hong Kong. The work attends to rain, reflection, passing figures and built space, holding familiar scenes at the point where memory, distance and uncertainty begin to alter them.

SELECTED EXHIBITIONS

Pure Street Photography Awards 2026

Finalist, Black & White Category. With Lifted Feet. Jawahar Kala Kendra, Jaipur, India. 20-21 November 2026.

Global Pulse (Vol. 2), MONAD

Brunswick Art Gallery, London. 3-4 April 2026. Two works exhibited, including The Risk It Took to Blossom.

Colorful, Aurea Photogallery

Online group exhibition. 8 May-5 June 2026. Behind the Veil and Chromatic Passage.

Beyond Themes, Aurea Photogallery

Online group exhibition, 2025-26. Detour to Otherness and Memory and Desire.

AWARDS AND JURIED RECOGNITION

reFocus World Photo Annual, 2025

Nominee, Non-Professional Minimalism, for The Risk It Took to Blossom.

One Eyeland, 2024

Babylon Revisited: Modern Bronze and Candid finalist. Or, Wake I Never: Candid and Modern finalist.

BBA One Shot Award, 2024

One of 50 nominees; work digitally displayed at the BBA Photography Prize exhibition, Kuhlhaus Berlin.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS AND INTERVIEWS

Pure Street Photography

Exclusive interview published 11 May 2026.

Visual Poetry Journal, Issue #9

Artist feature, December 2025.

Docu Magazine

Dedicated Savva Locci print special edition, 22 August 2024.